MANAGER COMMENTARY

Global markets started the year in mixed and volatile fashion. The US stock market fell in January whereas European markets rallied, helped by the European Central Bank's announcement of its new quantitative easing (QE) programme. There was plenty of uncertainty: company results were mixed; the oil price continued to fall; the Swiss Franc soared +15% on one day against the euro; the left-wing Syriza party came to power in Greece and fears of eurozone deflation led to yet lower bond yields.

Evenlode rose +4.9% compared to +3.6% for the IA UK Equity Income Sector and +2.6% for the UK market. The most positive performers over the month were Unilever, Imperial Tobacco, Pearson and Glaxosmithkline. Unilever and Pearson released trading updates, while Glaxo and Imperial rose on no specific news. The only negative contributors of note were Microsoft and Amec. Microsoft fell after releasing weaker than expected results and Amec fell in sympathy with the oil price.

We are by temperament long-term investors, but we also work hard to ensure that the portfolio retains a sensible balance between quality and value at any point in time. Stock-by-stock volatility has been higher than normal over the last few months, and we are adapting the portfolio to reflect this. This month we continued to reduce our positions in Reed and Compass, for instance, and recycled the proceeds into other holdings where we see better value.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Evenlode Income is a sub-fund of the TB Wise OEIC. Full details of the TB Wise Funds, including risk warnings, are published in the TB Wise Funds Prospectus, the TB Wise Supplementary Information Document (SID) and the TB Wise Key Investor Information Documents (KIIDs) which are available on request and at www.wiseinvestment.co.uk. The TB Wise Funds are subject to normal stock market fluctuations and other risks inherent in such investments. The value of your investment and the income derived from it can go down as well as up, and you may not get back the money you invested. Capital appreciation in the early years will be adversely affected by the impact of initial charges and you should therefore regard your investment as medium-to-long term. As a concentrated portfolio of 20 to 30 investments Evenlode Income carries more risk than a fund spread over a large number of stocks. The fund has the ability to invest in derivatives for the purposes of EPM, which may restrict gains in a rising market. Investments in overseas equities may be affected by changes in exchange rates, which could cause the value of your investment to increase or diminish. Every effort is taken to ensure the accuracy of the data used in this document but no warranties are given.
